20th Century
Decade of New Possibilities
1900
The opening of the 20th Century reflected the great expectations of people everywhere for a new century of progress. In just 10 years, extraordinary people and events set the stage for the entire epoch, which made the children of the 20th Century witnesses to more change than anyone who ever walked the Earth.

20th Century
Decade of Revolution and Great War
1910
Irresistible forces turned the world upside down as the 20th Century marched through its second decade. In just 10 years, simmering discontent and revolutionary ideas reshaped geographic, political, artistic and scientific frontiers, sowing seeds of turmoil for decades to come.

DECADE OF GLOBALIZATION AND HOPE

Witness to crumbling walls and falling frontiers, the decade recorded bold steps toward a new millennium of peoples with interests, institutions and economies interconnected as never before. Confident in this vision, nations joined to end tribalism's threats of violence and dislocation on the relentlessly shrinking planet earth.
