GOLDEN ROCK INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

The project comprised an 8,000 x 500' strip and within this a 7,600' long runway 182' wide overall with a large new parking apron capable of handling two Boeing 747 jets at any one time. It is notable for the quantity of excavation involved. This included the removal of two hills, the Golden Rock itself and Clay Hill, containing 750,000 cu. yds. of volcanic rock, boulders and clay.

25th ANNIVERSARY OF THE CORONATION 1953

Falcon of Edward III on St George's Chapel Windsor symbolises this gallant and chivalrous Plantagenet's love for the royal sport of hawking. The Pelican, often heraldically a symbol of pious motherhood, supports the shield of St Christopher Nevis Anguilla.
